

Carmen Arbaizar Mazás

Ph.D. Student in Economics, London School of Economics
PhD Affiliate, University of California, San Diego

c.arbaizar@lse.ac.uk
cmazas@ucsd.edu
carmenarbaizar.github.io

EDUCATION

London School of Economics Ph.D. in Economics	London, UK 2025 – Present
University of California, San Diego Visiting Ph.D. Student, Dept. of Economics (Sponsor: Samuel Bazzi) PhD Affiliate	San Diego, USA Apr. – Oct. 2026 Oct. 2026 – Present
Yale University Visiting Graduate Student Coursework: Analysis I (Intensive), Analysis II, Advanced Probability, Vector Analysis and Integration on Manifolds, Introduction to Functional Analysis.	New Haven, USA 2023 – 2025
University College London M.Sc. in Economics	London, UK 2022 – 2023
Carlos III University of Madrid Double B.Sc. in Economics and International Studies Full-year exchanges at the University of Mannheim (2019-2020) and UC San Diego (2021-2022)	Madrid, Spain 2017 – 2022

WORKING PAPERS

“Can Labor Market Opportunities Explain the Rising Levels of Morbidity and Mortality in the U.S.?”

RESEARCH AND WORK EXPERIENCE

Yale University Predocutorial Fellow – Research Assistant to Rohini Pande, Michael Peters and Fabrizio Zilibotti	New Haven, USA 2023 – 2025
Bank of Spain Visiting Researcher, Structural Analysis and Microeconomic Studies Department.	Madrid, Spain 2023
University of California, San Diego Undergraduate Research Assistant to Samuel Bazzi	San Diego, USA 2021 – 2022
CEMFI (Center for Monetary and Financial Studies) Research Assistant to Samuel Bentolila	Madrid, Spain 2021
Spanish Ministry of Foreign Affairs Intern at the Department of Policy Planning	Madrid, Spain Jan - May 2021

CONFERENCE AND SEMINAR PRESENTATIONS

2nd Berlin PhD Conference in Economics DIW Berlin	Jun. 2026 Berlin, Germany
Taming Polarization: Reforming the American Federal Republic (poster) Phelan U.S. Center	Oct. 2026 (scheduled) London, UK

HONORS, GRANTS AND AWARDS

Mercatus Ph.D. Fellowship Fellowship supporting doctoral research; includes a $4,000 award and funds regular in-person visits to Washington, D.C.	2027
UCL Dean’s List Awarded to the top 5% of students in each department of the Faculty of Social and Historical Sciences.	2023
Gay Clifford Award for Outstanding Women Students Value: £10,000. Awarded annually to one woman in the Department of Economics for an outstanding academic trajectory.	2023
Bank of Spain Postgraduate Scholarship Full M.Sc. tuition (£32,100) plus an annual stipend of £18,500.	2022
Extraordinary Distinction Award (Best Student in Cohort) Awarded by Carlos III University of Madrid for the best undergraduate performance.	2022

LANGUAGES

Native: Spanish, Galician; Proficient: English, French; Intermediate: German